

Post-doctoral Fellow (Ref: PDF/ARC/0911) Assessment Research Centre

The Assessment Research Centre (ARC) is an Institute-level research centre at the HKIEd. We provide strong leadership in assessment research in the Asia Pacific Region; generate and disseminate new knowledge in assessment and measurement; provide strategic and practical advice on assessment; develop the young generation of researchers in assessment; and build up research partnerships and network in the region and world-wide for the advancement of assessment and applied measurement.

Appointee will be responsible for conducting research projects, assisting in publication works, writing publications, organizing international and local conferences and workshops, supervising doctoral students, and performing other research-related duties as assigned. The appointment will be for a period of 12 months, with a possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement.

Applicants should possess a doctoral degree in psychometrics, educational measurement and assessment, quantitative methods or a relevant discipline. Preference will be given to those applicants with expertise in Rasch measurement, item response theory, computerized adaptive testing, multi-level modeling, structural equation modeling, and longitudinal data analysis. They should be self-motivated and able to work under tight timeline.

For enquiry, please contact Professor Wang Wen-Chung at wcwang@ied.edu.hk.
