

Quantitative Psychology

The Department of Psychology at Boston College (www.bc.edu/psychology) invites applications for a tenure-track appointment in Quantitative Psychology to begin July 2011. The rank is Assistant Professor, but for an outstanding candidate, appointment at a higher rank is possible. Applicants will be evaluated on their potential to establish a prominent, externally funded research program and to excel in teaching both at the graduate and undergraduate levels. We are committed to building in Quantitative Psychology. Applicants should send by email to psychsearch.quant@bc.edu one attached pdf document containing a cover letter, cv, research statement, and teaching statement outlining teaching experience and philosophy. Applicants should arrange to have three letters of reference, in pdf format, emailed to the same address (these references should be named in the cover letter). Original letters may be requested by the department. All materials must be submitted on or before October 15, 2010 for full consideration. Review of applications will continue until the position is filled.

For further information, contact search committee co-chairs, Dr. Ehri Ryu (ehri.ryu@bc.edu) or Dr. Hiram Brownell (hiram.brownell@bc.edu). Boston College, a university of eight schools and colleges, is an equal opportunity employer and supports affirmative action.
