
LECTURER POSITION – PSYCHOLOGY

The University of Texas - Pan American invites applications for a one-year full-time psychology faculty lecturer position for the 2010-2011 academic year. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate psychology courses in research methods and statistics and/or graduate statistics. A Master's degree in Psychology is required; a doctorate in psychology and previous teaching experience are preferred.

Include a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, any available data on teacher ratings, and any other supporting information. Also submit the names and contact information of up to three individuals who can provide a letter of recommendation. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Submit materials to:

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences – Office of the Dean
ATTN: Monica Denny
1201 West University Drive
Edinburg, Texas 78539-2999

UTPA has over 17,000 students and is located in the Lower Rio Grande Valley of South Texas with easy access to South Padre Island and Mexico. For more information about the university and department, visit our web site at www.utpa.edu/psychology . For specific inquiries about this position, please contact Dr. Grant Benham, Chair of the Psychology Search Committee, gbenham@utpa.edu.

NOTE:

UTPA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. This position is security-sensitive as defined by the Texas Education Code §51.215(c) and Texas Government Code §411.094(a)(2). Texas law requires faculty members whose primary language is not English to demonstrate proficiency in English as determined by a satisfactory grade of 500 or greater on the International Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL).
